

Mayor Markunas is Honored to Interview Dr. Constance Frazier, Suffern Resident and Rockland Commissioner on Human Rights

Mayor Markunas was honored to interview Suffern Resident, Dr. Constance Frazier, who serves as the Rockland County Commissioner on Human Rights. During the interview, Dr. Frazier presented an overview of human rights concerns in Rockland County, ways each of us can assist in making a difference, and her vision for Rockland's future. As part of Suffern's Women's History Month celebration, the opportunity to speak one-on-one with Dr. Frazier was truly a gift. The Village of Suffern thanks Dr. Frazier for all she has done throughout her career helping others as a role model, mentor, and advocate.

The entire interview with Dr. Frazier can be viewed at the Village of Suffern Facebook page using the following link:

<https://www.facebook.com/139193736151049/videos/2843113585945051>